

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Singing Men of Oak Brook invite you to “Sing for Joy — their 20th Anniversary Christmas Concert

The Singing Men of Oak Brook and guests will Sing for Joy at their 20th anniversary Christmas Concert to be held on Sunday, December 18, 2005, in the Sanctuary of Christ Church of Oak Brook, York Road at 31st Street.

The Singing Men - a non-denominational men's chorus - represent a wide range of professions, churches and communities in the Chicago area. The members love music and Christian ministry. The group was established in 1984 at Christ Church, thanks to the vision and encouragement of founding pastor Dr. Arthur DeKruyter.

Over the past five years, the Singing Men, along with the Heritage Singers — a fine women's chorale, have sung in concert with several notable artists: George Beverly Shea, Don Hustad, Ken Medema, Cynthia Clawson, Bruce Greer, Charles Gray, the Glen Ellyn Children's Chorus, Larry Dalton, and the Oakbrook Terrace Salvation Army Band.

In May 2003, the two groups featured Daniel Rodriguez — the singing policeman from New York — at two concerts in Edman Chapel in Wheaton. They later performed with Conductor Erich Kunzel, the Ravinia Festival Orchestra, and special guest Daniel Rodriguez at Ravinia Festival's Labor Day Spectacular.

For the 20th Anniversary May 21 concert, many former members of the Singing Men are returning. They will participate in several selections directed by former directors Devon Hollingsworth and Jack Schrader, along with current director Wendell Borrink.

To order tickets or for more information about a business ad in the concert program booklet,

Business Ad Sponsorships in the December 18, 2005
20th Anniversary Christmas Concert program booklet still available

Quarter page ad (2-1/4 x 3-3/4) = $200

Half page ad (4-1/2 x 3-3/4) = $375

Full page ad (4-1/2 x 7-1/2) = $500

Please include business art work or logos. If you have no art work, please provide us with the proper information.

Make checks payable to Singing Men of Oak Brook, P. O. Box 3351, Oak Brook, IL 60523